really enjoyed it beganing to get my head around how HTML and CSS

are used to completely break down and traget each and every element, being able to control the way everything is layed out on the page.

Aslo constructing the code in a readable and human freindly manner

No matter what I write here, students will read it with great interest.

Just wanted to post some stuff here.

Just was not able to copy tezt from metro.

really enjoyed it beganing to get my head around how HTML and CSS

are used to completely break down and traget each and every element, being able to control the way everything is layed out on the page.
